Join The Advertiser-Tribune again this holiday season by supporting our Seneca County business owners. The economic impact of local dollars spent in our communities is tremendous. Local purchases keep businesses open and people working. Local shopping makes our downtowns active and our communities stronger.

1. Pick up a card at any of the participating businesses listed.
2. Get three stamps on one card.
3. Drop it into an "I Shop Locally for Christmas" collection box and you're qualified for our weekly prize of $40 or more in gift certificates and our cash grand prize from October 15 - December 15

One lucky local shopper will win $2,020 Plus weekly prizes of $40 or more in gift certificates.

RULES: A customer can pick up a card from any participating business. After each visit, transaction, purchase, etc. the customer is rewarded with a stamp on the back of the card. Customers are limited to one stamp per visit. Each business owner can determine their own level of qualification, based on their products or services, and there can be no additional charge to the customer for participation or to get a card. After a card is stamped three times (at the same or any of the participating businesses), the card can be dropped off in a collection box located in each business. No limitations are set on the number of cards a customer can complete. Each Friday, the cards will be collected from each location and a weekly winner will be drawn. All cards, collected from each week, will be put into a drawing for the final grand prize drawing. Contest runs from October 15 to December 15, 2020. All entries must be turned in to a participating business or The Advertiser-Tribune by end of business day on Tuesday, December 15, 2020. Grand prize winner will be notified by phone on Thursday, December 17th and announced on Tuesday, December 22, 2020. Employees of The Advertiser-Tribune and their families are not eligible to win.
